A consequence of my commitment to living a focused life is that I am purposefully harder to reach than I once was. I no longer use social media and do not publish my personal email address. Here are the ways that you can stay in touch.

If you are interested in following my writing or academic projects, this website or my Academia profile are the best places for updated information. If you would like to contact me regarding a speaking or writing opportunity that I might find interesting, you can send an email to contact [at] isaachopper.com.

As always, thank you for reading and commenting. I hope you will find encouragement in my writing, as you continue to pursue a life committed to Jesus.
