A consequence of my commitment to living a focused life is that I am purposefully harder to reach than I once was. I no longer maintain an active presence on social media and do not publish my personal email address. The limited time I have available for interacting online is reserved for writing the best content I can for this blog and responding to reader comments.

If you are interested in following my writing or academic projects, this website or my Academia profile are the best places for updated information. If you would like to contact me regarding an opportunity that I might find interesting, you can send an email to contact [at] isaachopper.com. For the reasons stated above, I'll only respond to those opportunities that are a good match for my schedule and interests.
